MARGE POPP

When I was a young child, I used to outline all the pictures in my coloring books. I guess that's how I learned to draw.

In the sixties, I received a paint-by-numbers kit for Christmas. With the left-over colors, I painted my first picture on some masonite. That's when I realized I had a God given talent for painting.

I took a decorative arts class at the local high school for a short time & didn't paint much again until the late 90's when I joined a watercolor class at a Senior Center in Berdoo, with Art Escamilla. I've been painting off & on since then. I see such beauty in nature, trees & gardens & flowers. I love to paint, esp. landscapes.

PASSINGS

Beloved artist, Henry Fukuhara, passed away recently. Sincere condolences go out to his family and friends.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Fellow Artists,

At our upcoming meeting this month, we will conduct an election of the slate of Officers and Directors for 2010. Thank you to Nancy Brinkley and her nominating committee for their service in receiving nominations and striving to find volunteers to fill each vacant position.

At this time, we are lacking a Show Director. It is already time to begin planning for our show, so we desperately need someone to step forward. If you have served on the board at any time, you are eligible. Former show directors are ready to help you, committee members are experienced, and you will have an intern/helper who will direct the following year. Please consider serving Associated Artists in this vital way.

Members, please review the slate of Officers and Directors listed in this newsletter in preparation for voting. Special thanks goes to the following members who have accepted nominations to return or serve on the board for the first time: Reba Brancati, Aleta Jacobson and Mark Rush. Hooray!!!

See you at our meeting on February 10th. Why not bring a piece of your artwork for "Artwork of the Month"? We all want to see what you've been doing lately. I hope to see you then,

-Karen
