

DEMONSTRATOR

ELIZABETH CARR HIGHLIGHTS

*E*lizabeth Carr is a California artist who has loved art since early childhood. She has been painting since 2003 and enjoys doing abstract and non-objective paintings. She works with several different types of media, such as watercolor, acrylic, ink, collage, and gouache.

Before becoming an artist, Elizabeth worked with computers for 18 years. She wrote casino software in Las Vegas and Reno. In July 2002, she moved to San Bernardino due to her husband's job.

Elizabeth first took a class with Watercolor West's former president Tom Fong. Also, she has studied extensively with the former president of the National Watercolor Society, Chris Van Winkle. Over the years she has taken workshops with Gerald Brommer, Ratindra Das and Virginia Cobb.

Elizabeth served several years on the board of National Watercolor Society as show director.

PATRICK BIVONA

I guess in a way, I've always been interested in art, since dentistry is an Art & Science. The aesthetics in dentistry is the essential key to success. As an adult I enjoyed painting by numbers and still have a few hanging on our walls. Mixed media seems to fit my temperament best; I start to lose interest and get bored painting in one style or media. Mixed media gives one the freedom to go abstract or to be more disciplined. I started with toile painting classes, then classes with Debbie Phillips, and presently with Melanie Phillips. I just create & continue to enjoy the art journey. You can view most of my art work in my home office that include wood carvings, drawings and pictures. It's a very eclectic display!

Art to me is a stress release and my goals are to keep exploring and enjoying the discoveries without putting too much pressure on the final results. Like all artists, if your creative piece brings a smile or a nod of approval, you feel great, even if it's not the best in show.

DRAW AFTER THE MEETING!

We will be doing something new and exciting after the March meeting! Member Trudy Wood has "connections" at the San Bernardino County Museum, and will be bringing to us a selection of taxidermied animals for us to draw or paint from. Bring a sack lunch and your art supplies, and create art from 12:00 - 2:00 on March 10.

Thank you, Trudy!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Fellow Artists,

Don't miss our March 10th meeting. Besides another great demonstration, we'll install our 2010-2011 Officers and Directors. Thank you to all current board members for your dedication and service. I've really enjoyed being president the past two years. We've implemented many new ideas which, I think makes our organization vibrant and strong. Martha Cowan will be a great president, and I urge every member to support her and Associated Artists by being as involved as you can. Around show time in the fall we'll need lots of volunteers.

Speaking of show time, we have a great DVD available of our 2009 show at Victoria Gardens Cultural Center. Nancy Brinkley and Frank Cardinale shot the photos and member Susan Chavira arranged them with music and text. Thank you, Susan, for the many hours you spent creating this for us. We'll have them at our March meeting for a suggested donation of $5.

I hope to see you at our meeting. Bring a friend!

-Karen

CHANGES OF PAINTINGS

GIBSON CENTER- In last month's newsletter, we said that we would no longer be hanging artwork at the Gibson Center. However, that has changed, and we will continue to show there. If you are a member who wants to exhibit your work, please bring something to show at the next change of paintings, which will be in June at the Jim Brulte Senior Center, and in July at the Gibson Senior Center.

WEB SITE UPDATE

Editor's Note: In last month's newsletter, it was stated that our webmaster, Judy Webber, would be updating the website with bios and pictures of members' work. That was a miscommunication, and Judy will not be doing this, as it increases the size of the website too much. I apologize for misleading anyone.
