DEMONSTRATOR

HAL LAMBERT HIGHLIGHTS

Hal Lambert is an accomplished watercolorist and oriental brush painter who has traveled extensively throughout the world in search of meaningful subject matter to capture his impressions. His studies with Master Chinese Brush painters in China combined with his training in Western Watercolor techniques and his experience and training as an Architect has culminated in a refined blending of Form, Color, and Movement that can only be described as New Age Impressionism. His works of art employ this fascination with color, pattern, design, and movement to accentuate the Myth, Magic, and Spirit felt when viewing the completed work.

Mr. Lambert has attended many schools, including: Otis Art Institute; University of Southern California, School of Architecture; Laguna College of Art; Saddleback College; and Zhejiang Academy of Fine Arts, Hangzhou, China.

He is affiliated with several galleries, including Back Door Gallery, Laguna Beach; Back Door Gallery, Rancho Mirage; and Signature Gallery, San Diego and Del Mar.

Mr. Lambert has many national and international shows to his credit as well as extensive honors and awards. His works appear in many corporate collections including McDonnell Douglas Corp., UPS in NY, NY, and Amoco Corporation.

JOY MERRITT

Joy Merritt discovered the artist within her in a strange way. She was home alone one night -- then someone broke in and robbed her. In her quest to overcome the anger that remained due to this trauma, she was convinced to focus her anger through drawing and painting. She began to discover her pathway into the world of fine art. The results have indeed changed her life.

She explains her philosophy, "A lack of formal education in the fine arts maintains that expression takes form not by diploma alone, but by dipping the mind into the water well of life and beginning somewhere, sometime."

Joy was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., where she graduated from The Vincentian Academy, which is directed by the Vincentian Sisters of Charity. In 1969 she moved to Pasadena where she lived for 25 years and raised her family. She now resides in Alta Loma, California.

Watercolor painting is her current focus, although she also has enjoyed other media such as acrylic and oil painting. She has studied art with John Trees, Vivian DeLand, Donna Barnes Roberts, and Jim Burns. Her highly regarded mentor has been Dr. Alan Karbelnig, whom she credits for his guidance, encouragement, and patience.

Teaching art is also a passion for Joy. She instructs at several Southern California locations. Her paintings are in private collections throughout the Southern California area.

Joy has won several awards from area art shows and competitions. She is a member of The Associated Artists of the Inland Empire, and is a former member of art associations in San Gabriel and Pomona Valley.
